

EFPIA Code Disclosure 2024 Self-Certification Scheme

Healthcare professionals (HCPs) and healthcare organisations (HCOs) with whom UCB works provide the pharmaceutical industry with valuable, independent and expert knowledge derived from their clinical and management experience. As owners of scientific knowledge and experts in medicinal products, pharmaceutical companies can be a unique resource to the healthcare systems and providers, which will ultimately benefit the patients.

In the same way, the pharmaceutical industry works with Patient Organisations (POs), this collaboration is essential in addressing patient needs. POs have a key role in helping to shape, develop and define the outcomes that make the most difference to patients.

EFPIA and its member associations have adopted codes and guidelines to ensure that the interactions of their member companies with HCPs, HCOs and POs meet the high standards of integrity and transparency. Building greater transparency to the relationships between pharmaceutical companies and HCPs/HCOs/POs aims to building understanding of the collaboration and recognition of its value to patient care.

Except in countries where disclosure is prescribed by laws, UCB hereby confirms that its disclosures of transfers of value (ToVs) to HCPs, HCOs and POs made in 2023 have been reported in application of the EFPIA Code following key principles:

Disclosure quality

UCB certifies that:

- Its disclosures are made in each country covered by the EFPIA Code where it operates;
- Its disclosures include direct and indirect ToVs, as defined in the Code and associated guidance issued by EFPIA;
- Its Methodological Note describes the process it has followed in order to compile the data hereby disclosed.

Methodology used for the collection and organisation of ToVs is in line with the EFPIA Code's requirements and applicable codes

UCB certifies that:

- Data collection complies with the requirements of the EFPIA Code;
- Actions are taken to ensure individual disclosure for HCPs and HCOs' transfers of values (each as defined in the EFPIA Code).

Aggregate disclosures are limited to Research and Development ToVs and such HCPs/HCOs' ToVs that cannot be disclosed on an individual basis for legal reasons

UCB certifies that aggregate disclosure is limited to the following topics:

- Research and Development Transfers of Value (as defined in the EFPIA Code);
- Transfers of Value to Recipients that have opposed to the publication on grounds of the protection of their private data;
- If an HCP or HCO (where applicable) has provided consent to individual disclosure only in respect of part of the Transfers of Value he/she/it received, all Transfers of Value to such HCP or HCO (where applicable) are being disclosed in the aggregate.

Ensuring compliance with Data Privacy Obligations

UCB certifies that its disclosure complies with the Data Privacy obligations.

Electronic Record and Signature Disclosure

ELECTRONIC RECORD AND SIGNATURE DISCLOSURE

From time to time, UCB S.A., and its affiliates and subsidiary companies (we, us or Company) may be required by law to provide to you certain written notices or disclosures. Described below are the terms and conditions for providing to you such notices and disclosures electronically through your DocuSign, Inc. (DocuSign) Express user account. Please read the information below carefully and thoroughly, and if you can access this information electronically to your satisfaction and agree to these terms and conditions, please confirm your agreement by clicking the 'I agree' button at the bottom of this document.

Getting paper copies

At any time, you may request from us a paper copy of any record provided or made available electronically to you by us. For such copies, as long as you are an authorized user of the DocuSign system you will have the ability to download and print any documents we send to you through your DocuSign user account for a limited period of time (usually 30 days) after such documents are first sent to you. After such time, if you wish for us to send you paper copies of any such documents from our office to you, you will be charged a $0.00 per-page fee. You may request delivery of such paper copies from us by following the procedure described below.

Withdrawing your consent

If you decide to receive notices and disclosures from us electronically, you may at any time change your mind and tell us that thereafter you want to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format. How you must inform us of your decision to receive future notices and disclosure in paper format and withdraw your consent to receive notices and disclosures electronically is described below.

Consequences of changing your mind

If you elect to receive required notices and disclosures only in paper format, it will slow the speed at which we can complete certain steps in transactions with you and delivering services to you because we will need first to send the required notices or disclosures to you in paper format, and then wait until we receive back from you your acknowledgment of your receipt of such paper notices or disclosures. To indicate to us that you are changing your mind, you must withdraw your consent using the DocuSign 'Withdraw Consent' form on the signing page of your DocuSign account. This will indicate to us that you have withdrawn your consent to receive required notices and disclosures electronically from us and you will no longer be able to use your DocuSign Express user account to receive required notices and consents electronically from us or to sign electronically documents from us.

All notices and disclosures will be sent to you electronically

Unless you tell us otherwise in accordance with the procedures described herein, we will provide electronically to you through your DocuSign user account all required notices, disclosures, authorizations, acknowledgements, and other documents that are required to be provided or made available to you during the course of our relationship with you. To reduce the chance of you inadvertently not receiving any notice or disclosure, we prefer to provide all of the required notices and disclosures to you by the same method and to the same address that you have given us. Thus, you can receive all the disclosures and notices electronically or in paper format through the paper mail delivery system. If you do not agree with this process, please let us know as described below. Please also see the paragraph immediately above that describes the consequences of your electing not to receive delivery of the notices and disclosures electronically from us.
